

MELISSA QUINN FOX

ARTIST BIO

She may not have grown up with Southern roots, but rising Singer/Songwriter Melissa Quinn Fox uses her honest, story-driven lyrics, expressive vocals, and captivating live performances to deliver a blend of Country and Americana music that is relatable as it is authentic.

While reviewers have described her vocals as “gritty, gorgeous, and sound all her own,” Melissa draws inspiration from influences such as Stevie Nicks, Patsy Cline, Miranda Lambert, Natalie Merchant, and Melissa Etheridge.

Growing up singing in church and graduating with a BA in Musical Theatre opened the door for the musician, hailing from Pittsburgh, PA to travel and perform at theme parks in the US and Europe while developing her own artistic niche.

Since 2021, the hard-working independent artist has released a self-titled EP and twelve well-received singles. Melissa was named 'One To Watch' and was featured on Fox5 DC and WUSA9's TV morning news programs in the Washington, D.C area, while her music has been played on national and international radio.

A member of ASCAP and the Songwriter's Guild of America, Melissa is a four-time Washington D.C area Musicianship 'Wammie' Award-winner for Best Country/Americana Artist, Album, and Song in 2023 and Best Country/Americana Song in 2022.

Playing over 150 live shows a year, Melissa has had the opportunity to open for Brad Paisley, Tenille Townes, War Hippies, Jerrod Niemann, Tyler Farr, Davisson Brothers, and Chase Bryant. In 2022, she performed at the 2022 Barefoot Country Music Festival in Wildwood, NJ and the 2023 Carolina Country Music Festival in Myrtle Beach, SC alongside – Miranda Lambert, Lainey Wilson, Kenny Chesney, and others. Currently promoting her latest single, Searching and EP, Everything Changes, listeners can look forward to a full tour schedule and more new music in 2024.

Tour dates can be viewed on her official website: www.melissaquinnfox.com

“Melissa’s got that sincere connection to her songs that’ll pull people in from all over the fringe and right onto her bandwagon.”
